Price Increase Announcement

Dear Valued Customer,

Due to the continued increasing costs of raw materials and components, Oriental Motor USA is announcing a price increase on a limited group of products. The following product groups will be receiving this price increase:

- Mechanical Linear Slide and Cylinders
- General components including bracket and cables
- Limited Cooling Fan products and accessories
- Legacy products and Legacy package products (components of these legacy packages, sold separately, will not be affected).

We understand the challenges this may cause and have chosen at this time to limit this price increase to the above-mentioned products.

*Last day to purchase at existing prices is by 12:00 noon pst, 9/26/2025 (Friday).

We have and will continue as a company, to improve our productivity and ability with the focus of keeping our commitments to you. We appreciate your business and understanding, and again we would like to thank you for being a valued customer.

Effective date: October 1, 2025

Products Affected: Linear Slides / Cylinders, Components, Legacy products

Price Increase Rate: 5 ~ 15%*

*Product increase rates vary by product type
